

Pollok Golf Club

General Manager

Pollok Golf Club - A stunning course and a true gem in Scottish golf

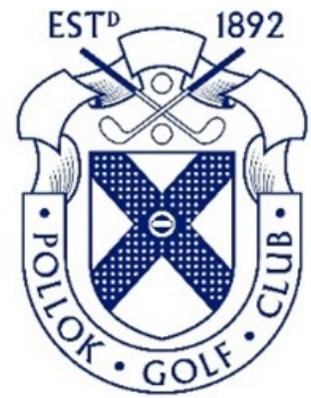

Designed by the legendary Dr. Alister MacKenzie, the visionary architect behind Augusta National and Cypress Point, the course reflects MacKenzie's signature design philosophy—strategic bunkering, undulating greens, and a layout that rewards both precision and creativity.

This highly regarded private members' golf club is seeking an experienced and dynamic General Manager to lead all aspects of club operations and support its long-term strategic development. This is an excellent opportunity to join a respected, forward-thinking club and play a central role in shaping its future.

The new General Manager's key responsibilities will include:

- » Fostering a positive club culture
- » Leading & developing the whole team
- » Overseeing day-to-day operations across the whole club

The General Manager will operate within a supportive governance structure and be central to influencing the future direction and development at the club.

Closing date for applications is midday on Friday 13th March 2026

with interviews to take place on Thursday 26th March

In order to meet these challenges, the successful candidate must demonstrate:

- A proven record in effectively managing a service-based organisation
- A thorough understanding of the operational and governance demands of a private members golf club
- An outgoing personality to positively influence the performance of others

An attractive package commensurate with experience is on offer to the successful candidate.

This senior management position is being promoted by Contemporary Club Leadership.
